WASHINGTON, D.C. (March 7, 2017) – The ADAP Advocacy Association, also known as aaa+[®], today announced that it will host an ADAP Regional Summit on April 14, 2017. The southern summit – held in partnership with the AIDS Healthcare Foundation (AHF), Community Access National Network (CANN) and the North Carolina AIDS Action Network (NCAAN) – is going to focus on specific issues facing the Ryan White Program with the uncertainty surrounding the future of the Affordable Care Act. It is being held at the Sheraton Raleigh Hotel, located at 421 South Salisbury Street, Raleigh, NC 27601.

The summit will include two roundtables. Both of the roundtables will include presentations by leading policy experts followed by lengthy open discussion sessions for all attendees. It will conclude with an open town-hall style dialogue among attendees about the overall Ryan White Program – including its AIDS Drug Assistance Program – and what changes need to be made to better serve clients.

The summit is free and open to the public, but advance registration is required. To register, go to www.adapadvocacyassociation.org.
