WASHINGTON, D.C. (January 8, 2018) – The ADAP Advocacy Association today announced that it would host its 11th Annual Conference on September 20-21, 2018. The conference – themed as "Mapping a New Course to Protect the Public Health Safety Net" – is being held in partnership with the Community Access National Network (CANN). The host hotel is the Westin Georgetown, located at 2350 M Street, NW, Washington D.C. 20037.

“With so many public health programs being undermined by the Trump Administration, it is important to identify new strategies to protect them,” said Brandon M. Macsata, CEO of the ADAP Advocacy Association. “We have made so much progress in the fight against HIV/AIDS over the last decade, we cannot afford to turn back the clock. Our organization’s stakeholders are united to map a new course.”

The conference will bring together all stakeholder groups concerned about the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP) for two days of programming to discuss current and emerging public policy issues, exchange ideas and develop strategies for effective patient self-advocacy. It will also showcase the 8th Annual ADAP Leadership Awards Dinner on Friday, September 21st at 7:00 pm.
