WASHINGTON, D.C. – The ADAP Advocacy Association today announced it would resume its face-to-face advocacy starting later this year, after a two-year pause in response to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The ADAP Advocacy Association is excited to announce it will once again host its HIV/AIDS Fireside Chats, assembling key stakeholder groups to discuss pertinent issues facing people living with HIV/AIDS. In continuing the organization's strong commitment to patient-centric advocacy, each event will include local patient-advocates to ensure “that the voice of persons living with HIV/AIDS shall always be at the table and the center of the discussion.”

The following HIV/AIDS Fireside Chats will convene this year:

- Atlanta, Georgia in June 2022
- Chicago, Illinois in August/September 2022

The HIV/AIDS Fireside Chats will employ strong Covid-19 safety protocols, including proof of vaccination for all attendees. In addition, all attendees will be tested for Covid-19 with the test kits provided by the ADAP Advocacy Association.
